RE: Invitation to the CAAC Echo China Night at ASE 2016 Dinner Reception

Sponsored by PHILIPS Ultrasound

Dear Friends:

We are very pleased to announce that the Chinese American Academy of Cardiology (CAAC, <http://www.mycaac.org>) will host our annual CAAC Echo China Night at ASE scientific symposium and dinner reception on SUNDAY June 12th, 2016 from 6:30 pm to 10:30 pm at the Hilton Seattle (Seattle, WA, USA) during the ASE 2016 Scientific Sessions. As always, the goal of this program is to promote academic communications, collaborations and networking among the Chinese, Chinese-American, and American echocardiography experts. Meanwhile, this program will also be a good opportunity and social event for everyone to meet your colleagues and friends attending the ASE 2016 Scientific Sessions.

You are cordially invited to join us at this free academic and social event, during which we will host the annual CAAC Young Investigator Award (YIA) competition program to promote academic excellence and collaborations. Please encourage your junior faculties (within 5 years of their terminal degrees), in-training fellows, and students to submit their presenting ASE 2016 abstracts to leixiao1@gmail.com to compete for the CAAC-YIA program with cash prizes and award certificates.
